

WSU VANCOUVER

For the 2016 Employee Engagement Survey (EES) there were 49 respondents in 2016 compared to 30 respondents in 2014 who identified their department within WSU Vancouver. Within WSU Vancouver, the response average for statements 1-38 was 3.92, resulting in a 1.5% decrease in the overall response average from 2014. Of those who responded, 38.78% were administrative professionals, 38.78% were classified staff, and 22.44% were faculty.

As explained in the 2016 EES Results Report, responses were measured using a 5-option Likert scale with “Never” equaling 1 and “Always” equaling 5 to determine the frequency in which employees identified with the statements.

The overall satisfaction at work (statement 38) increased from 3.83 in 2014 to 3.86 for 2016. Additionally, for the 2016 survey, 77.55% of respondents said they always or often enjoy being part of their department (statement 28). A breakdown of response averages can be found at the end of this report on pages 4-5.

EMPLOYEE FEEDBACK:

At the end of the survey, employees were given the opportunity to provide feedback regarding subjects not addressed in the survey. The following feedback, specifically related to employee perceptions of the workplace, was provided by respondents who identified themselves within WSU Vancouver:

- I have great coworkers and a great Director
- I like the people I work with
- Lack of merit pay increases
- Recruiting concerns with the new $15.00 an hour minimum wage increase
- Difficult for adjunct faculty to develop research due to being a part time employee and ineligible for many University sponsored professional development and grant opportunities
- Each outlying campus needs support built around the local needs
- Difficulty deciphering policy when receiving conflicting opinions from Vancouver and Pullman
- The limited investment in technology infrastructure does not meet expectations of faculty, staff and students
- Concerns about data security
- Not having the tools to collaborate with on-line co-workers, faculty, researchers, and other organizations
- Limited opportunities for advancement at outlying campus
- Negative work climate due to some employees in leadership positions bullying, not being helpful and making things difficult

ACTION ITEMS:

In reviewing the lowest area response averages and the statements with negative change from 2014 to 2016 in WSU Vancouver, initiatives to improve employee engagement and perceptions of the workplace may include, but are not limited to:

- Identify positions with inappropriate compensation
- Provide employees with resources as appropriate and encourage the use of University resources
- Provide employees with on-going feedback and recognition
- Encourage communication with employees on how success is measured and provide on-going feedback on how to improve performance
- Improve communication efforts regarding changes at the university level
- Evaluate how input is solicited and taken into consideration
- Improve communication efforts regarding department reporting structures
- Improve communication regarding work expectations
- Improve communication regarding the WSU policies concerning workplace violence and bullying prevention and reporting, and provide employees with resources as appropriate
