

ATHLETICS

For the 2016 Employee Engagement Survey (EES) there were 33 respondents in 2016 compared to 26 respondents in 2014 who identified their department within Athletics. Within Athletics, the response average for statements 1-38 was 3.94, resulting in a 0.25% increase in the overall response average from 2014. Of those who responded, 57.58% were administrative professionals, 33.33% were civil service and 9.09% were faculty.

As explained in the 2016 EES Results Report, responses were measured using a 5-option Likert scale with “Never” equaling 1 and “Always” equaling 5 to determine the frequency in which employees identified with the statements.

For the 2016 survey, 78.79% of respondents said they always or often enjoy being part of their department (statement 28). However, the overall satisfaction at work (statement 38) decreased from 4.31 in 2014 to 4.06 for 2016. A breakdown of response averages can be found at the end of this report on page 4.

EMPLOYEE FEEDBACK:

At the end of the survey, employees were given the opportunity to provide feedback regarding subjects not addressed in the survey. The following feedback, specifically related to employee perceptions of the workplace, was provided by respondents who identified themselves within Athletics:

- Concerns regarding financial responsibility
- Concerns regarding unethical recruitment practices, including nepotism
- Employees should be allowed to work as much as they would like
- Inconsistent and unfair treatment of employees
- More in-depth new employee orientation is needed
- Workplace climate concerns, specifically regarding discrimination

ACTION ITEMS:

In reviewing the data for those respondents who identified themselves within a unit reporting through Athletics, initiatives to improve employee engagement and perceptions of the workplace may include, but are not limited to:

- Evaluate how input is solicited and taken into consideration
- Evaluate work climate and encourage employees to communicate concerns
- Identify positions with inappropriate compensation
- Improve the area's approach to the University's mission of openness and innovation
- Improve communication efforts regarding changes at the department and area levels
- Improve communication efforts regarding department reporting structures
- Improve communication regarding the WSU policies concerning Bullying Prevention and Reporting, and provide employees with resources as appropriate
- Provide employees with on-going feedback and recognition
- Provide employees with resources as appropriate and encourage the use of University resources
