

WSU EXTENSION

For the 2016 Employee Engagement Survey (EES) there were 61 respondents in 2016 compared to 109 respondents in 2014 who identified their department within WSU Extension. Within WSU Extension, the response average for statements 1-38 was 3.82, resulting in a .8% increase in the overall response average from 2014. Of those who responded in 2016, 37.7% were faculty, 32.8% were administrative professional, and 29.5% were classified staff.

As explained in the 2016 EES Results Report, responses were measured using a 5-option Likert scale with “Never” equaling 1 and “Always” equaling 5 to determine the frequency in which employees identified with the statements.

The overall satisfaction at work (statement 38) remained the same at 3.93 from 2014 to 2016. Additionally, for the 2016 survey, 78.69% of respondents said they always or often enjoy being part of their department (statement 28). A breakdown of response averages can be found at the end of this report on pages 4-5.

ENJOY BEING PART OF THEIR DEPARTMENT

ADVANCING THE UNIVERSITY'S MISSION:

The 2016 EES asked respondents to identify the extent to which their department approached advancement of the University's mission, specifically as it related to the University goals of accountability, innovation, creativity, openness, and collaboration. This graph demonstrates the response average within WSU Extension compared to the overall WSU average:

UNIVERSITY RESOURCES:

Based on feedback, the 2016 survey added additional statements regarding workplace concerns and employee awareness of WSU resources, specifically those resources related to Workplace Violence, Bullying, State Ethics, Discrimination, Sexual Harassment and Sexual Misconduct. This graph demonstrates the percentage of employees who identified awareness of the following University policies within WSU Extension:

Policy Prohibiting Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, and Sexual Misconduct	100%
Washington State University Ethics, Conflict of Interest, and Technology Transfer	83.61%
Workplace Violence	75.41%
Bullying Prevention and Reporting	67.21%

EMPLOYEE FEEDBACK:

At the end of the survey, employees were given the opportunity to provide feedback regarding subjects not addressed in the survey. The following feedback, specifically related to employee perceptions of the workplace, was provided by respondents who identified themselves within WSU Extension:

- Difficult to get information/employment help when so far from Pullman
- Would be nice to have a raise
- Faculty and staff not included in finding solutions to issues
- General disapproval of the regional extension specialist concept among county administrative faculty
- Policies and procedures are developed for the on campus faculty and programs
- University systems are difficult to work with, delay in processing payments etc.
- Concerns regarding the quality of teaching that occurs; more support to train extension educators on teaching and facilitation skills
- Compensation disparities between men and women in same/similar roles
- Lack of clear policies and procedures; inadequate program oversight
- WSU needs to focus on effective leadership skills among its supervisory positions, and then provide incentives for effective, professional leadership

ACTION ITEMS:

In reviewing the data for those respondents who identified themselves within a unit reporting through WSU Extension, initiatives to improve employee engagement and perceptions of the workplace may include, but are not limited to:

- Identify positions with inappropriate compensation
- Improve communication efforts regarding changes at all levels of the University
- Provide on-going feedback on how to improve work process
- Provide employees with resources as appropriate and encourage the use of University resources
- Improve communication regarding the WSU policies concerning workplace violence and bullying prevention and reporting, and provide employees with resources as appropriate
