Rules and Restrictions

HRS Benefits administers the Voluntary Investment Program (VIP), including enrollment and distribution of plan information and administrative information. While employees have flexibility in matters of investment decisions, the administration of the plan is subject to the following:

1. Enrollment/Change: Employees may enroll or make a change by completing and submitting a VIP Enrollment/Change Form to the HRS Benefits Office. This Enrollment/Change Form is referred to by Internal Revenue Code (IRC) as a Salary Reduction Agreement. The requested contribution must be in compliance with IRC Sections 403(b), 415 and 402(g). The allocation of the funds can be changed at any time.

2. Limitations of Contributions: To comply with Internal Revenue Code (IRC), the voluntary elective deferral limit for 2019 is $19,000. Employees age 50 or over in 2019 may make an additional contribution of up to $6000.

In addition, there is an IRC Section 415 limit on the combined employee and employer contributions to a defined contribution retirement plan. This limit applies to both the WSU Retirement Plan (WSURP) and the VIP, and is tracked over a tax year (January through December paychecks). Contributions under other employers’ 403(b) plans also count towards this limit, as do contributions under Keogh plans or plans of any business or professional practice you control (50% or greater). Please notify HRS immediately if you feel this may apply to you. However, special “catch-up” contributions for those over age 50 do not count toward this limit.

For 2019, the maximum annual compensation from which contributions can be taken is $280,000 (401(a)(17)).

If you are age 50 or over and have voluntarily elected to contribute 10% in the WSURP, 2.5% of the 10% is considered voluntary.

3. Minimum Contribution: You may invest with the minimum investment requirements, which is $15 per paycheck.

4. Annual Renewal of Contribution: Contributions begun by Salary Reduction Agreement will automatically renew each year effective with the January 10 paycheck. Employees are responsible for reviewing their limit each year to ensure they are contributing at their desired level.

5. Allocation of Future Contributions: You may change the allocation of future contributions with the fund sponsor at any time by contacting the fund sponsor, TIAA, directly.

6. Withdrawal of Contributions: The IRC restricts access to contributions before age 59½ except upon one of the following events:

1. Severance from employment;
2. Hardship, as defined by the IRS “safe harbor” provisions; or
3. Disability.

All withdrawn contributions are subject to federal income taxation in the year in which they are received. Before age 59½, a 10% penalty and restrictions may also apply. Employees should refer to the fund sponsors’ Annuity Contracts and Custodial Agreements.
