

Progress Review Feedback Report
John Doe
2019

About Your Report

The purpose of the standardized progress review is to assess your capabilities as a senior leader against leadership criteria. The progress review consists of six sections designed to provide an overview of the senior leader's progress and transition into the University system. Feedback from individuals who have had the opportunity to observe and interact with you on a regular basis, along with your self evaluation have been scored.

The results of your evaluations will be displayed throughout this report.
