a neglect of your duty to carry out your duties in a trustworthy manner and in accordance with WSU policies and is a violation of WSU policies outlined below.

List polices and sections specifically.

- CONSIDERATION OF LEVEL OF DISCIPLINE

In determining the appropriate level of discipline to impose, I considered all the facts and circumstances surrounding your behavior, your length of service, your record to date and the seriousness of this offense.

- CONCLUSION

In determining the appropriate level of discipline I considered...

I conclude that you are unable to be relied upon to safeguard the interests of the University or your employing department. Your actions impair our ability to carry out our mission and to provide the services needed to meet the needs of faculty and students. I have therefore determined that the only appropriate discipline is your dismissal/demotion from employment as outlined above.

- IF APPLICABLE INCLUDE

It is the intent of this disciplinary action to impress upon you the seriousness of your behavior. This letter is intended to convey to you the importance of meeting workplace standards and expectations. Future occurrences of conduct such as this or any other performance deficiencies may result in more severe disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

If applicable - If you are experiencing personal problems which may be impacting your ability to effectively perform the duties of your position (and conduct yourself appropriately), I encourage you to contact the Employee Assistance Program at Lighty 286 or phone 335-1744 (use EAS reference if not on Pullman campus).

- APPEAL LANGUAGE

In accordance with 357-52-010 and 015 of the Washington Administrative Code, you have a right to appeal this action to the Washington State Personnel Resources Board (PRB). Such an appeal must be submitted either electronically at <https://prb.wa.gov/forms/> or in writing to the Washington State PRB, RAAD Building, Third Floor, 128 Tenth Avenue SW, PO Box 40911, Olympia, WA 98504-0911 within thirty (30) calendar days of the effective date of this action.

Sincerely,
