CAREER TRACK ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS
RESEARCH SUB-TRACK

Career Track Research Faculty are non-tenure track research appointments who predominantly conduct research, scholarship, or creative activity and who may serve as principal or co-principal investigators on grants or contracts administered by the university. This sub-track will have no significant teaching or service expectations unless those responsibilities are negotiated and commensurate funding support is provided. Promotion in this sub-track is typically based on traditional measures of research or scholarship, i.e., publication, extramural funding, and national or international reputation.

All career track appointments should align with current Washington Administrative Code Regulations (WAC 250-61-100).

Suitable Qualifications are an appropriate earned degree and experience related to the position.
