

FACULTY
BENCHMARK JOB CLASS
CAREER TRACK ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS
SCHOLAR SUB-TRACK

Career Track Scholarly Faculty have significant responsibilities in at least two of the following areas: (a) teaching, (b) student advising, (c) research or scholarship, (d) creative activity, (e) outreach, (f) practice, (g) educational leadership, (h) administration, or (i) academic service. Most faculty in this sub-track will have a significant teaching or student advising responsibility. However, carrying a large teaching or advising load and receiving good student ratings is not sufficient for promotion in this sub-track.

All career track appointments should align with current Washington Administrative Code Regulations (WAC 250-61-100).

Suitable Qualifications are an appropriate earned degree and experience related to the position.

Scholarly Assistant Professor-Career /0161

Scholarly Associate Professor-Career /0162

Scholarly Professor-Career /0163