- B. Work Week: The work week begins at 12:00 a.m. on Sunday and ends at 11:59 p.m. the following Saturday.
- C. Work Period Designations: Employees covered by this Agreement are assigned to one (1) of the following work period designations. Work weeks and work shifts of different numbers of hours may be established for employees by the University, as long as the work schedules meet federal and state law. Employees may request schedule changes in accordance with Article 6.1.E.
1. Regular Work Schedule: Regular work schedule for full-time employees consists of five (5) consecutive and uniformly scheduled eight (8) hour days in a seven (7) day period. Uniformly scheduled means a daily repetition of the same working hours and a weekly repetition of the same working days.

  3. Flexible Schedule: Relief Shift employees on a flexible schedule will have established core hours normally consisting of five (5) consecutive work days followed by two (2) consecutive days off and when required, the relief employee can be scheduled to cover an open alternate shift. While on a relief shift, the alternate shift is considered a regularly scheduled shift. Management will make an attempt to notify relief shift workers of the alternate shift assignment and duration of alternate assignment, as soon as the need is reasonably determined. Should an alternate shift be required for a full work week, management will attempt to leave the originally assigned relief employee on alternate shift assignment for the work week, absent business necessity requiring otherwise. The most current relief schedule will be made available for employees.

D. While workplace efficiency and effectiveness govern scheduling, the University will consider an employee raised concern regarding an alternate work schedule that creates consecutive workdays in excess of seven (7) days over a two (2) week work time period.

E. Schedule Changes

1. A permanent schedule change is defined as a change lasting over thirty (30) days. Employees will be notified in writing at least seven (7) days in advance of a permanent work schedule change, including the reason for the change, and must receive such notice during working hours. The day notice is received is considered the first day of notice. Employees working a relief shift receive notice in accordance with 6.1.C.3, flexible schedule.

3. Employees will not work more than sixteen (16) consecutive hours in a twenty-four (24) hour period. After working sixteen (16) consecutive hours in a twenty-four (24) hour period, employees will have at least eight (8) hours off.
4. Shift Bidding: The University will determine when a shift will be filled, the classification, and the knowledge, skills and abilities necessary to perform the duties of the specific shift. An employee may submit written bids to their supervisor between the first and last workdays in May of each year for shift opening requests. By end of second workweek in July, the supervisor will review, resolve scheduling conflicts on the basis of operational necessity, employee qualifications and seniority, and notify employees of the identified schedules expected to begin after the summer schedule ends each year. Should operations necessitate a modification to an employee's shift, schedule change processes as outlined above in section 1 and 2, will be followed.

5. An employee may request a schedule or shift change in writing. Employee schedule or shift change request approvals or denials are subject to University business and customer service needs. Workplace efficiency and effectiveness will govern the approval or denial. The University will consider the personal preferences of the employee. The Employer may disapprove requests if there are business, customer service, performance, or attendance concerns. Previously approved work schedules and shifts may be rescinded by the University if business and customer service needs are no longer being met, or if performance or attendance concerns occur. If denied, the employee will receive documentation of such denial.
- F. Phone Calls: Time spent on work-related employer initiated and subsequent employee initiated telephone calls during the employee's non-work time of over ten (10) minutes per day will be considered time worked and will be deducted from standby pay, if applicable. Employees are not required to answer the phone or respond to work related messages during their non-work time, unless they are on stand-by status.
- G. Clean-up Periods: Employees will be allowed an appropriate personal cleanup period prior to lunch, if necessary, and the end of the work shift, as determined by the supervisor.
- H. Work Time Certification: Employees will not certify time worked documents that are inaccurate. Employees who believe they have been presented with an inaccurate accounting of time worked shall certify the document if directed to by the supervisor and state their concerns. Any changes to time worked documents that are initiated by management after the employee has certified it, will be reviewed with the employee. If an employee is not present at work for more than two (2) days to review the correction, the responsible supervisor will certify the corrections and process them in accordance with normal procedures. The changes will be reviewed with the employee when they return to work.

6.2 OVERTIME

4. Employees traveling on University business will be compensated in accordance with the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

  1. An employee must have prior approval to use accumulated Compensatory Time.
  2. Compensatory Time off shall not be allowed if the use of Compensatory

Time off creates an overtime situation for other employees in the department and/or results in an operational hardship as determined by the University.

Approved Annual Leave requests will be adjusted if the Employee has not accrued sufficient Annual Leave by the time of the scheduled absence.
- C. Annual Leave Bid Process: Employees will submit written bids to their supervisor between the first and last work days in January of each year for Annual Leave requests. These bids will be for the Annual Leave calendar of March of the current year through February of the following year. By the end of the second full work week of February, the supervisor will review, resolve scheduling conflicts on the basis of seniority and post a listing of approved requests on work unit bulletin boards. The posted Annual Leave is considered to be approved. Employees on said listings will have priority regardless of the seniority of subsequent requesters.

1. The University will make every effort to find alternatives to meet staffing needs without rescinding previously scheduled leave.
  2. When circumstances require the presence of a particular employee who is scheduled for or on approved leave, the University may, as a last resort, cancel the authorized Annual Leave. The Employee will be given priority for rescheduling the Annual Leave, but the leave request will not displace previously approved leave of other employees.
