GUIDELINES FOR
ADJUNCT FACULTY, ADJOINT FACULTY, AFFILIATE FACULTY,
VISITING FACULTY & VISITING SCHOLARS

The guidelines describe appointment, privileges, requirements and responsibilities for all adjunct faculty, adjoint faculty, affiliate faculty, visiting faculty, and visiting scholars, to ensure observance of Washington State University (WSU or University) policies, guidance and the provisions of the Faculty Manual, including but not limited to those sections concerning research conduct and intellectual property. These appointments are considered short-term faculty and the appointment length may be one-semester to a maximum of three (3) years.

1. ADJUNCT/ADJOINT FACULTY

DEFINITION

Adjunct and Adjoint faculty are individuals who may hold positions with employers other than WSU and are appointed temporarily to WSU faculty. Adjunct and adjoint faculty provide various types of instruction, research and/or service within individual colleges according to established criteria and may serve on graduate committees. As qualified, ranks of adjunct/adjoint assistant professor, adjunct/adjoint associate professor, or adjunct/adjoint professor may be assigned to adjunct/adjoint faculty. Appointments are for up to three years.

Typically, adjunct and adjoint faculty remain under obligation to their employers, and may receive financial support from their institutions, governments, and/or organizations. With area appointing authority approval, they may receive salary or wages from WSU. This policy applies to all adjunct and adjoint faculty, including those who have not been appointed under authorized titles.

PURPOSE

The appointment provides a mechanism for practical instruction and/or research collaboration with WSU faculty, as well as access to resources and laboratory facilities. Adjunct and adjoint faculty benefit WSU by enhancing the quality of its research and education.

The appointment provides safeguards for the University to ensure compliance with WSU Faculty Manual, and other WSU policies. The appointment provides identification of, and authority concerning scholars for grant, contract and other compliance purposes including, but not limited to, conduct of research and teaching, ethics, retention of data and safety.

Status as adjunct or adjoint faculty member does not preclude nor does it guarantee subsequent appointment to any faculty or other WSU position.

APPOINTMENT PROCEDURE

The WSU Department Chair or School Director (Chair/Director) requesting the appointee shall review and assure that the candidate for adjunct or adjoint faculty appointment meets the definition and purpose criteria. The Chair/Director shall produce a letter or memorandum to the College Dean or Appointing Authority explaining the purpose of the appointment, visit or research/scholarly collaboration, and if applicable identify the faculty (PI) collaborator, attaching vitae information, written assurance from the external sponsor for the individual’s financial support (if pertinent), and verifying visa status. Upon approval, the department shall make an offer to the candidate by letter and obtain the candidate’s agreement via his or her signature accepting the letter’s terms.

Adjunct and Adjoint faculty appointments may be processed via PERMS action. The appointment offer letter and/or PERMS action must be signed and approved by the Chair/Director and College Dean or Appointing Authority before a WSU ID number will be issued and appointment processed. The appointment may not be issued for more than three years at a time. The adjunct/adjoint faculty member may obtain a WSU ID card after the appointment has been approved.

2. AFFILIATE FACULTY & NON-FACULTY AFFILIATE

DEFINITION

An affiliate faculty is already a WSU employee (faculty or administrative professional) and has been invited to serve in a faculty role in a program other than the one paying his/her salary. Affiliate faculty are appointed on an unpaid, usually part-time basis to a department other than their home department at WSU for limited, renewable terms. As qualified, ranks of affiliate assistant professor, affiliate associate professor, or affiliate professor may be assigned to affiliate faculty who do not otherwise possess a faculty title.

A non-faculty public affiliate or industry affiliate is someone from the public sector or private industry. Non-faculty affiliates are appointed on an unpaid, usually part-time at WSU for limited, renewable terms.
Visiting scholar affiliates are students who conduct collaborative research/scholarly collaboration or intern with a WSU faculty member. Supported by funds outside WSU (i.e. Fellowships) and are usually part-time at WSU for limited, renewable terms.

PURPOSE

An affiliate faculty is someone who may use university facilities (i.e. library), be assigned university space and materials (office space, phone, etc.), usually for a period of six months or more, renders service to the university and there is a supporting need to list them in various university information sources (WSU directory info, email, etc.)

A non-faculty affiliate may use university facilities, and be assigned university space and/or materials, from which to provide service to the university or conduct research/scholarly collaboration, and is supported by funds outside of the university.

CONDUCT OF RESEARCH

The University strives for excellence in research, and all sponsored, or non-sponsored research, and will adhere to federal, state laws and WSU regulations. Responsible conduct of research is described at http://www.ora.wsu.edu/rcr/

See Faculty Manual Research/Research Misconduct

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

All faculty are bound by all WSU policies and state/federal law, including in the conduct of activities carrying with them obligations regarding intellectual property. See Faculty Manual Intellectual Property

VISA REQUEST and EMPLOYMENT ELIGIBILITY

WSU and the sponsoring Department/School may assist the potential adjunct faculty, adjoint faculty, visiting faculty or visiting scholar member with visa requests through the Office of International Faculty and Scholars Services. The foreign visitor must obtain the proper visa prior to his/her departure from his/her home country. https://ip.wsu.edu/on-campus/faculty-scholarservices/

WSU employs only U.S. citizens and lawfully authorized non-U.S. citizens. Offers are contingent upon securing, prior to the start of employment, appropriate visa status and work authorization. All new employees must show employment eligibility verifications as required by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service to comply with the Immigration Reform and Control Act.
RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES

Non-paid adjunct faculty, adjoint faculty, visiting faculty or visiting scholars are not employees of the University, although they are subject to faculty rights, expectations and privileges appropriate to their designation as set forth in the Faculty Manual. They must be enrolled at Human Resource Services for purposes of workers compensation insurance. Consult Human Resource Services regarding the limitations on benefits and protections to which visiting, adjunct, and adjoint faculty are subject.

Although non-paid adjunct faculty, adjoint faculty, visiting faculty and visiting scholars receive few benefits (i.e., no compensation or benefits package), they may receive certain courtesies in consideration of the services they provide to WSU. These courtesies may change over time, and the below list is not contractual nor a guarantee of such courtesies. The following is a non-inclusive list of courtesy benefits, most of which are generally available to the public:

- WSU ID card (identification): http://cougarcard.wsu.edu/
- Library privileges: http://www.wsulibs.wsu.edu/
- Access to WSU study and research facilities
- Campus parking privileges for a fee: http://transportation.wsu.edu/
- Access to computing facilities or services
