

FACULTY
BENCHMARK JOB CLASS
POSTDOCTORAL TEACHING ASSOCIATE/0257

Description Summary

This is a training position. Postdoctoral teaching associates are persons who have received a doctoral degree and are engaged in a temporary and defined period of mentored training related to teaching and pedagogy to allow them to prepare for a career devoted primarily to teaching or a career in which teaching will be a primary responsibility. Postdoctoral Teaching Associates should receive active and ongoing mentoring from one or more designated advisors throughout their post-doctoral period.

Appointment

A Postdoctoral Teaching Associate will be appointed for a two-year term with the possibility of (one) two-year renewal.

NOTE: Unlike the Postdoctoral Research Associate, this Postdoctoral Teaching Associate does not require submission of the Postdoctoral Research Associate checklist, as the Postdoctoral Teaching Associate duties do not include research.

Examples of Suitable Qualifications

An earned terminal degree in an appropriate field and relevant experience.
