Notice of Summer Hours

It's time for managers to make plans for summer schedules. Washington State University’s business hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. year round.

In keeping with a long-standing practice, WSU will observe a schedule known as summer hours for as many employees as possible, while still meeting the requirement to serve the public from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Summer hours will be 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., with 30 minutes for lunch, during the period from Monday, May 9, through Friday, August 12. It is the responsibility of the supervisors and staff of each department.

Emerging a DEI Ally and Agent for Change

To understand and appreciate diversity in the workplace, we must develop an understanding of ourselves and the diverse ways we view the world. Working in a diverse and inclusive workforce has many personal and professional benefits, from improved wellness and personal health to engagement and community and innovation and creativity. Equally important is the ability to leverage each of our unique talents, skills, and contributions. In this course, you’ll explore strategies to help you become an advocate for diversity, equity, and inclusion within the workplace.

How to Be an Ally: Actions You can Take for a Stronger, Happier Workplace

Uniquely insightful and extremely timely, How to Be an Ally humanizes diversity and inclusion and facilitates greater empathy and understanding between people of all identities. It teaches us that every individual can learn about the imbalance in opportunity and work to correct it.

The key to true diversity, equity, and inclusion is allyship. This one-of-a-kind guide provides everything you need to use allyship to create a better workplace for ourselves and our colleagues.

Summer Hours

area to provide service to the public during the noon hour and from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m. during this period. Summer hours are approved at the department level.

Managers may approve an employee to work a flexible work schedule, including a 4-day/10-hr-per-day work schedule. The manager is responsible for determining the work schedule in accordance with operational needs, and applicable rules or policies.

two paychecks*.

- Life insurance premiums for the summer break will be taken from the May 10th check.
- Medical premiums and the tobacco or spouse surcharges (if applicable) will be taken from the May 25th check.

*Deduction dates may vary for employees with appointment terms other than nine months.

HRS will send a direct email to the impacted employees in the next couple of weeks informing them of the summer premium collection schedule, and provide additional details.

Termination Actions

Benefits to determine if the summer appointment will extend benefit eligibility beyond May, since that may not always be the case.

Additionally, if you have a nine-month faculty member or cyclic employee who has submitted a resignation letter stating they will not be returning to employment for Fall 2022, or after their cyclic break, the resignation date should reflect the last day of their paid academic or appointment, i.e. May 15, 2022.

Departments must not accept resignation letters which reflect dates that do not correspond with the paid appointment.

In support of the university’s budget efforts, one way to efficiently manage WSU funds is to cease employer contributions towards benefits for employees who are no longer eligible in a timely manner.
